

Acoustic (I love it)

AC / DC, ZZ Top
Good rock to rock and roll your bones
All the bands between them
Sabbath, Purple, Zeppelin and The Stones

All the young lads
That have plucked a string and learnt to play guitar
So they'll pick up all the chicks
Be big fat rock and roll stars

Little Richard shook his bum
And got them swinging to his jive
Elvis cut a record
Way back when in 1955

Leo Fender built a guitar
That would plug into a stack
Jimmy Hendrix made a sound
Like wahga-wa-wag-wah-wagkata-wack

But I want acoustic
I must be getting on

All that proggy Floyd
With keyboard layered icing on the top
Wear your psychedelic trousers
It's the serious kind of rock

Gene Simmons stuck his long tongue out
Said I want to rock and roll
Well I like a cup a cup of tea
Followed by an afternoon stroll

Because I want acoustic
I must be getting on

But I've still got that big Marshall
I've still got that cool Les Paul
Come on you lot
I've got first class honors from a rock school

And I'll look you eye to eye and tell you
I still play electric guitar
And although I like some Mozart
Da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da

I want acoustic
I must be getting on
