

Day and Night Dream

Don't throw away a pearl
For a rough cut diamond
This delicate World
So full of mistakes

Of friends you don't keep
And that you do
Don't mean it's not right
Or that it's not true

For friends hold and weep
Those tears on your arms
Are speckles of stars
That glimmer in sleep

Our friends see our fault
Lines underneath
Listen our complaints
Help us to see

We are not alone
Nor never will be
As long as we're humans
Who day and night dream