

Like a Daydream

Sometimes my mind
Is misty in the morning
Like what's inside
Was hidden in the dark

Of that cold night
It feels now like a daydream
She pulled the tide
I drowned inside the wave

Dada dumb
I drowned inside the wave
Dada dumb
I drowned inside the wave

If I'd a purse
For every time we've made love
I'd have enough
To buy you pretty stones

But all I have
Are words that I will give you love
I wish I could
Place them on your lips

Dada dumb
Place them on your lips
Dada dumb
Place them on your lips

I lost my mind
The day I gave my heart away
To the wrong dreams
The wishes I'm not meant to win

Yet there's still hope
As long as someone's listening
To every deed
I've reaped before I've sowed

Dada dumb
I've reaped before I've sowed
Dada dumb
I've reaped before I've sowed

I've reaped before I've sowed
I've reaped before I've sowed
I've reaped before I've sowed
