

Lines in Sand

Commit your heart to mine
Sign on that dotted line
It might not be the time
To ask you
Oh no

But there's no way I can
Still be your only man
If we don't make a plan
To change to
My dear

Oh
Dada dumb
Dada dumb
Dada dumb

It's not a compromise
Look in my loving eyes
You'll see they tell no lies
I love you
I do

And love I understand
Is not just lines in sand
It's something we can plan
To get to
Oh

So when we reach the end
We have our love to fend
Off all the devil can send
To stop us

From loving those who mean
Everything we have been
From now unto the scene
When we're dust

There is no trouble there
Not one last earthly care
Just time to stand and stare
At nothing

So if you love me true
And I know that you do
Let's fight death me and you
Or something
