

Oh Cherry Darling

Oh Cherry darling
What you got for me
I'd like a little more than this
What's stopping you

Oh cherry darling
Where'd you want to go
I'm tired of sitting on the side
Waiting for the show

Somebody tolled me
You're the kind of girl
Who leads a man straight to his grave
Before he's left the world

Now I should have listened
To those rumours sold
But how could I believe them
When I couldn't catch a cold

So Cherry's leaving
On the Underground
I'll probably never see her
This is such an ugly town

It thrusts us together
And it tares us apart
In several different languages
And matters of the heart

Woh yeah
That's good
Uh huh
Yeah yeah

Solo

Woo who who Woo who who
Woo who who
Woo who who

Let's take this one
Right down to the crash
