

Outside There's a Little Girl

All asking there's no more lies
Although you have slowly been crying
There's no more to be than to view
Although we trust
Always we do

But outside there's a little girl
Outside there's a whole new world
Outside there's a little girl

I know it is cold as a winter
I'll be there just as much as I would in June

Outside there's a little girl
Outside there's a whole new world
Outside there's a little girl
