

Rock Star for Tonight

I headed south to the heart of the city
Just to make a living make a living
Make a killing if I can

Now I'm standing at the bar
Bartender another beer
Bring another bottle
Free of charge
I'm in the band

I am a rock star for tonight
It feels so good to be alive
I'll never work a nine to five
I am a rock star for tonight

I caught a train with a suitcase and a guitar
Had a couple songs
On a napkin that I'd wrote

Now I'm getting paid
Not enough to give a landlord
Every pound I earn
Every penny
That I make

But I'm a rock star for tonight
Just doing the things that I like
I'm never working on a nine to five
Cause' I'm a rock star for tonight

I had a job as a barman back in my town
Worked fifty hours
Went to bed and worked again

Hardly made nothing
Watching people have a night out
I thought it looked fun
But I had to think again

Now I'm a rock star for tonight
I'm self-employed but I don't mind
I can't go back to a nine to five
Now I'm a rock star for tonight
