

Super Pretty Girlfriend

I've got a super pretty girlfriend
She goes to work and drives the car
I wonder how I got so lucky
Just why she let me get this far

For I'm a loser and she knows it
But I'm a singer in a band
So quit your yapping and get nearer
Get closer to me with your hands

Understand

I have a super pretty girlfriend
She pays the bills and cooks my meals
So it's no wonder that I love her
I have the better of the deal

For nothing 's paying and she thinks that
I'm just a dreamer in a band
She's gonna dump me and go further
Go deeper with some other man

Understand

You're too good for me
Super pretty girlfriend
You're temporary
