

The Cloven Viscount

I miss the way you kiss me
I miss the home you made me
I read the book you gave me
Last night

It's of a man who's too good
On one side but on the other
He's too bad and he cannot balance
His life

Now I am not a cloven viscount
And you are not a fairy princess
But I know where I have gone wrong
With you

So come on take a drink with me
Tonight have a dance with me
Say to me life is a mystery
Who knows

Where the hell we are going to
It's somewhere I do not know
Could be worse but I think better
Then now

But you know that there is a theory
That everything has happened already
And this time I have figured it out
For good

That this song was always written
And those stars have always been there
And our love has been forever
The truth

So come on take a tour with me
Bring out all the best in me
I know I have done wrong but I know life
Goes on
