

The Sinner of Pinner

What a night
A night for walking back to yours

I'll lead you on
I'll do the talking through your doors

And though they're locked
I have the keys to walk right in

Into your house
Into your chamber where we'll sin

'Cause I am the sinner
The Sinner of Pinner
I walk through the winter
I stalk through the summer
So lock up your daughter and lock up your sister at home

What a night
A night for walking back to mine

I'll rub my hands
I'll get you talking feeling fine

And as I close
This isn't cheating just a game

I bet when she
Goes out with her friends does the same

'Cause I am the sinner
The Sinner of Pinner
I walk through the winter
I stalk through the summer
So lock up your daughter
And lock up your sister at home

What a night
A night for dancing and some more

I'll do my job
I'll get you talking breaking laws

It's when I drink
Not when I'm sober what'd you do

If someone's wife
Or someone's girlfriend came to you
