

We'll Rise We'll Fall

Hey it's been a long long way to Cape Town
Across the mountains and the fields of grape
It is a colourful place
With a wonderful taste
For majestic god-full views

I've got one hundred kilos to Cape Town
Rolling in my friend's car down the road
I do not know where we are
But it's not very far
So turn the volume up on the stereo and sing sing

Hey anna hey anna nana
Hey anna nahey
Hey anna hey anna nana
Hey anna nahey

I've got the wind blowing my hair toward Cape Town
There's cattle grazing at the side of the road
There is a feeling of speed
Everything that we need
Is above us and around

So let us carry carry on all the way to Cape Town
With the foreground framed by the mountainous sky
As clouds hang up like washed clothes
I think how nobody knows
Where we are or where we'll be and we sing

Hey anna hey anna nana
Hey anna nahey
Hey anna hey anna nana
Hey anna nahey

We'll rise we'll fall
We'll come when we hear your call
We'll rise and we'll fall
And we'll come when we hear your call singing

Hey anniy annana hey anna nana
Hey anniy annana hey annana
Hey anna hey anna nana
Hey anniy annana hey alright

We'll rise, we'll fall
We'll come when we hear your call
We'll rise and we'll fall
And we'll come when we hear your call
When we hear your call
