

VII

If you read these lines
Don't take what I write to heart
For I change my mind
As easy as moments pass
Over time sweet time
On this rock called earth
If you read this book of lies
Don't take it and make it worse

What I lost that day
Is nothing I cannot recall
But if someone's reading it
I wouldn't be happy at all
Those missing words
Every hopeless one
Was a private universe
It was for nobody spun
